PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE

God of Light,

we confess that we have gone astray and have left Your light.

We follow the dim lights of the world,
lights of success and fortune.

We follow the dim lights that call us
to be more religious by following rules.

Forgive us for not seeking the true Light of Your love for all the world.

Forgive us for not following the ways of Jesus,
who commanded us to love one another.

Call us to be light-bearers of love, compassion and justice,
in which the Mystery of Your Love is revealed.

In the name of Jesus the Messiah, we pray. Amen.

(Silent prayers for personal confession)

My friends, Epiphany is good news!

The Light comes not to sear and blind us but to save us.

Christ Jesus came into this world to save sinners.

In him our sins are forgiven!

Thanks be to God!

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

To worship you, Lord God, is our joy and our strength.

As the heavens tell your glory

and the firmament proclaims your handiwork

we open our hearts in thanksgiving to pour forth your praise.

Your prophets foretold a day when your Anointed One would bring good news to the poor, release to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind.

In Christ you proclaimed the year of your favor and fulfilled the promise of your glory.

In his death he faced your world's impulse to remain in the prison of sin, but by raising him from death

you opened the gates of eternal life and set us free.

And so with the saints in heaven above and on earth below,

we praise your name and join their unending hymn.

Holy, holy, holy Lord God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Baptizing God as you created the body with many members, each in need of one another, and from many members make us one,
transform us around this table
to realize our common need for one another.

Sanctify us as we drink of the one Spirit to make us one in you.

Send your Holy Spirit upon this bread and cup that they may be for us
the body and blood of your Son, Jesus Christ;

who at supper with his disciples, took bread, gave you thanks,
broke the bread and gave it to them saying,

"Take, eat: this is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup.

Again he gave thanks, and gave it to his disciples saying,

"Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so in this sacrament

we celebrate and proclaim the mystery of our faith.

And so in this sacrament we celebrate and proclaim the mystery of our faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Wondrous God

whose ways are more to be desired than gold, even much fine gold, hasten the day when those ways shall be known in all the earth.

Fix your promise in the hearts of your children who suffer,
that as members of your body they may never suffer alone.

Let loose your praise from the lips of those who rejoice,
that in your body they may never rejoice alone.

Make the simplest among us the wisest in you.

Revive the souls that wait on you and restore the hearts that rest in you, until eternity dawns and the voice of thanksgiving is heard through all the earth, giving glory to you, our living God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

MAC'S MUSINGS

Dodging the Devil Part 2

One of the ways of Satan is to make us think we must always put ourselves first. I ran across this story, which made me stop and wonder.

There was once a farmer who grew award-winning corn. Each year he entered his corn in the state fair where it won first prize. One year a newspaper reporter interviewed him and learned the farmer's strategy for growing winning corn. What was it? Simply this: the farmer shared his seed corn with his neighbors.

"How can you afford to share your best seed corn with your neighbors when they are entering corn in competition with yours each year?" the reporter asked. "Why" said the farmer, "don't you know? The wind picks up pollen from the ripening corn and swirls it from field to field. If my neighbors grow inferior corn, cross-pollination will steadily degrade the quality of my corn. If I am to grow good corn, I must help my neighbors grow good corn."

The lesson for each of us is this: if we are to grow good corn, we must help our neighbors grow good corn.

I thank God for our time together in God's house and at God's table where we are strengthened for every trial and temptation. And remember, God loves you; and so do I!

You should have received an Estimate of Giving Commitment Card in the mail. If you did not receive one, or if you forgot to bring it with you today, additional cards are available. We invite you to prayerfully consider what your offering to God through our church will be in the coming year. Then fill out a card and bring it forward at the conclusion of the worship service.
