CHORAL CALL TO WORSHIP, 395

"Take Time to Be Holy"

HOLINESS

Words: William D. Longstaff; Music: George C. Stebbins

HYMN OF PRAISE, 400

"Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing"

NETTLETON

THE APOSTLES CREED, 881

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

SERMON

"Anger—The Emotion of the Falsely Righteous"

Pastor Kinnett

HOLY COMMUNION

(Wine and grape juice are used for communion. The first chalice is grape juice and the second chalice is wine. Gluten free bread is available in the center.)

LITANY OF CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE

God of mercy, hear the prayers of your people.

For every time we have attributed your miracles in our lives to our own hands alone,

Forgive us, we pray.

For every time we promised to trust you but turned to our own way when your response did not come soon enough or in the way we expected,

Grant us mercy, O God.

For the many opportunities to extend forgiveness that we have refused,

Show us what it means to love, again, dear Lord.

For each way we put our own understandings above your wisdom,

For each time we resist your command to be reconciled with those who believe differently from us,

Direct us in the way of peace, we pray.

For our silent sins and our indifference to the suffering round us,

Forgive us, Loving One, and quench our thirst with your grace;

Remake us into vessels of tenderness and compassion.

For Christ's sake we pray. Amen.

Because of God's great love for us, we have peace with God and access to God's grace through Jesus Christ who died to free us from the bondage of sin. In this we know we are forgiven.

Thanks be to God!

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor gives thanks appropriate to the occasion, remembering God's acts of salvation, and concludes

And so, we gladly thank you, with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, we join the unending hymn.

Holy, holy, holy Lord God of power and might,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The pastor continues the thanksgiving. The institution of the Lord's Supper is recalled. The pastor concludes

And so in this sacrament we celebrate and proclaim the mystery of our faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

The pastor invokes the present work of the Holy Spirit and then praises the Trinity, concluding:

God most glorious, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

HYMN OF COMMITMENT, 399 (Acolyte) "Take My Life, and Let It Be" MESSIAH

You are invited to the altar during the singing of this hymn.
Kneel... commune with God... return to your chair when ready.

WHAT IS A METHODIST?

Methodists have a Wesleyan theology. This means that we follow the beliefs of John and Charles Wesley to help us understand who, and whose, we are. Our primary sources for understanding Wesleyan thought are the sermons of John Wesley as well as the hymns of his brother, Charles. The first thing they tell us is that the Bible is our primary source of reference and illumination.

Moving beyond that basic affirmation of Holy Scripture, God's grace is considered to be the cornerstone of Wesleyan belief. Though the tendency in the modern world is to claim and marvel in God's grace and in companionship with Jesus Christ, for Wesley, thoughts about grace begin with a sober appreciation of our need for God's grace. Although people like to think of themselves as basically good (thereby needing God's grace only to make life a little better), Wesley clearly understood and taught that we are sinful by nature, and hopelessly lost without God's grace. Through God's grace, we are rescued from the power of sin and death.

In this strong emphasis on God's grace, Wesley spoke of the dimensions of God's grace given in three ways – prevenient grace, the grace that enables us even within our sinful state to turn to God; justifying grace, the grace that sets us in a right relationship with God; and sanctifying grace, the grace that guides and sustains us as we grow and mature along our Christian pilgrimage in life.

Though written by the daughter of a Presbyterian pastor, Methodists certainly appreciate the familiar words of a favorite hymn – "Marvelous, infinite, matchless grace freely, bestowed on all who believe!" Next, we'll look a little closer at the Wesleyan understanding of the implications of grace for Christian living. Meanwhile remember, God loves you; and so do I.

Jesus was a skilled storyteller and perceptive teacher who used parables from everyday life to effectively convey his message and meaning. Life in first-century Palestine was very different from our world today, thus a clearer understanding of that world brings new life to Jesus' stories.

In "Short Stories by Jesus," a wise, entertaining, and educational book, Amy-Jill Levine takes readers back in time to understand how the original Jewish audience understood Jesus' parables. Levine reveals the parables' connections to first-century economic and agricultural life, social customs and morality, Jewish scriptures and Roman culture. With this revitalized understanding, she interprets these moving stories for the contemporary reader, showing how the parables are not just about Jesus, but are also about us—and when read rightly, still challenge and provoke us two thousand years later.

Six one-hour sessions with a 10-12 minute video segment and discussion and reflection.

Wednesday sessions started July 11.

Sunday sessions start today at 6:00 PM.

Register using the card in the attendance pad, by email or on our website.
